SIXTEENTH EDITION

Stoneham High School

STONEHAM, MASSACHUSETTS

The People's Choice

Mr. Earle T. Thibodeau

For your thirty-five years in our school as an inspiring teacher of American history and as head of the social studies department,

For your presentation of Memorial Day programs that reflect your own service in a World War to defend our country,

For your counseling of senior classes and for your personal guidance of individuals,

For your democratic contribution to our community,

We salute you, and we dedicate our 1953 yearbook to you!

Through the Years

"Tibby's" contribution to Stoneham High School students and to our town has been tremendous! It is significant that at our class reunion he was affectionately referred to as Stoneham High School's "Mr. Chips". Over the quarter century since we graduated, he has given many of us wise counsel and advice, reflecting a deep, sincere interest in us. Greatness is generally earned and so too is leadership.

Nicholas E. Apalakis
President of Boston University
Alumni
Boston, Massachusetts

Since my days as a student in Mr. Thibodeau's classes, I have roamed far and wide, in many foreign places, as well as in this country; and the affection, admiration, and respect I have for my good friend and fine teacher, Mr. Thibodeau, remain as strong today as the day I graduated from Stoneham High School.

Cynthia Bagdikian
The Town House
Los Angeles, California

I worked with Mr. Earle T. Thibodeau for twenty-one years. It was always a pleasure to visit his classes. He taught history in a way that led his pupils to love their country and the American way of life. May God grant that he continue to influence and guide youth for many years to come.

Charles Varney
Former Superintendent of Schools
Stoneham, Massachusetts

Mr. Thibodeau is a man of integrity and determination. He has not only led his students toward the acquisition of knowledge, but has striven to impart a sense of value to this knowledge. To Mr. Thibodeau, my gratitude and admiration.

Captain William A. Seward, Jr.
U. S. Air Force
Arlington, Virginia

"Tibby," in my day, taught algebra and American history and even took over a French class once. He rates the top of my list of teachers. It is indeed a pleasant privilege to be able to pay tribute to him. He was more than a teacher; he was our friend.

Thomas Peter Devlin, M D.
Middlesex County Examiner
Stoneham, Massachusetts

A teacher of learning and a friend of all, Mr. Thibodeau through the years of my school life was truly an inspiration. My best wishes to a good friend and teacher.

Camille D. Johnson
Executive Secretary of the
Warren Kay Vantine Studio
Boston, Massachusetts

Earle Thomas Thibodeau is all that people hope to find when they consider what sort of man should be a teacher and a counselor of their teen-age children. Devoted to his profession and to his people, he stands out in my happy memories of high school days.

Robert Holden, M. D.
Commonwealth Avenue
Boston, Massachusetts

Could we ever forget the saying, "Time, tide and Thibodeau wait for no man!" I'll always remember Mr. Thibodeau's timely appearance at the corner of Canal and Causeway Streets in Boston one Sunday morning during 1943, when I was on my way back to the Navy. Learning that I had forgotten my money and train ticket, he gave me the money for the ticket. For his patient and unselfish contribution to education, I express the thanks of the class of 1942.

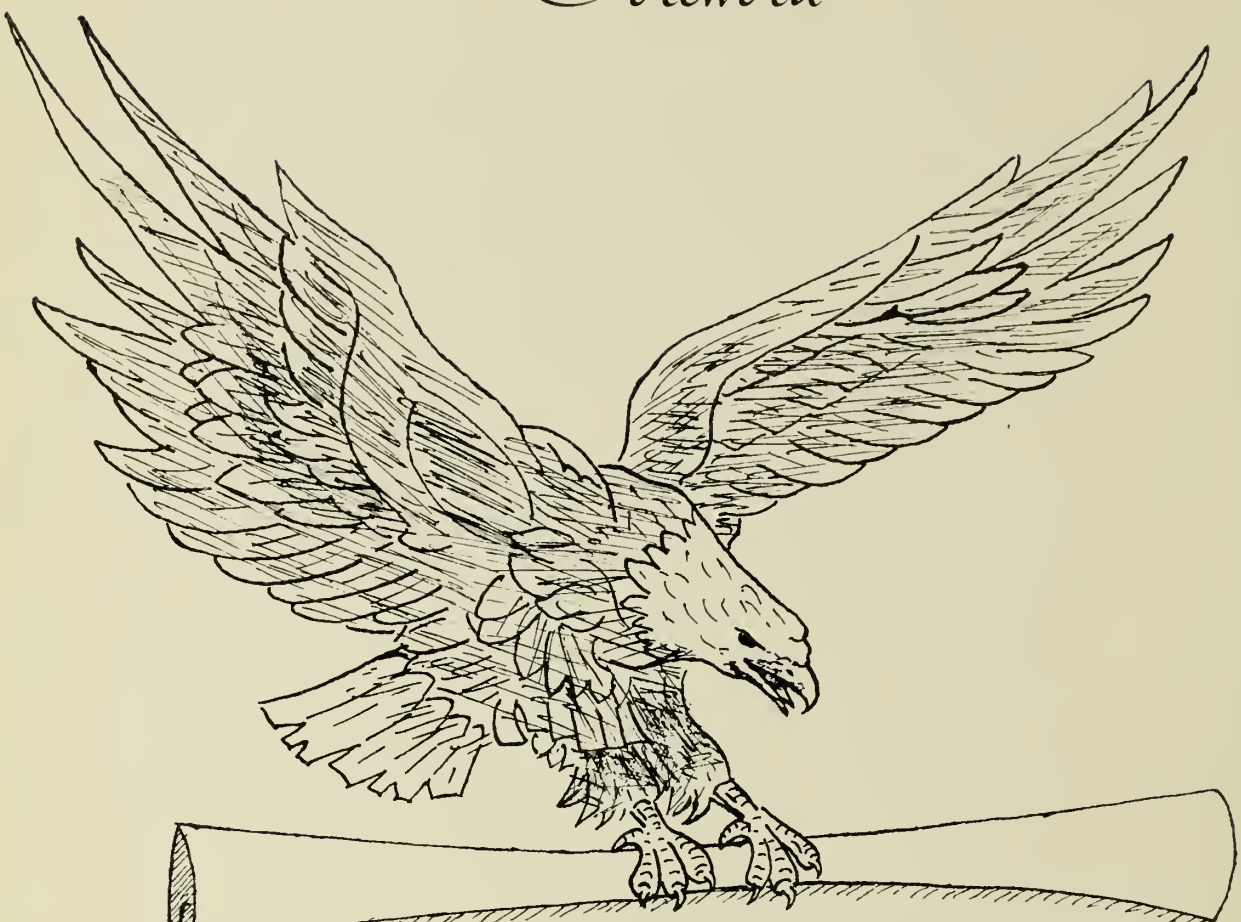
Foreword



Living as we do in a time of world crisis, graduating as we are in an inaugural year, and deciding now as we must upon careers for our mature life, we realize the privileges and responsibilites of a democratic society. "The Torch" reviews the many experiences that have contributed to our growth — the influence of our teachers; creative expression in music, art, literature, and dramatics; participation in student government, athletics, and recreational activities; and development of friendships with those with whom we have worked and played together. We, the Class of 1953, hope that this yearbook will always remind us that "the light of democracy must be kept burning."

GODSPEED TO THE CLASS OF 1953

Harry Emerson Fosdick once said, "Democracy is based upon the conviction that there are extraordinary possibilities in ordinary people." The success of democracy is contingent upon the effort of the ordinary individual to develop these possibilities. Democracy will fail unless we recognize that in sharing its privileges we are responsible for a personal contribution to its success. It is my earnest wish, and that of the faculty, that each of you may discover early the extraordinary possibilities that are yours. May you find your path clearly marked to the goals of your choosing, and may your giving and your sharing bring you life's richest rewards.

William M. Nadeau

ATHLETICS

Football

This year we had a hard-working team which showed brilliance on occasion but lacked the final impetus to win. The able co-captains, Dick Whitney and Butch Knight, were the spirit builders on the club and were outstanding in actual play. Although the season was unsuccessful as far as wins went, the boys who participated gained much from playing. Ed Conklin was the manager. The seniors who did their part in the line were Tommy Gilmartin, Jim Sullivan, Bill Kenney, Bill Canavan, Bob Shanks, Paul Bartlett, and Jim Breagy. Those in the backfield were Warren McCarthy, Bob Morse, Dick Sawin, and Ted O'Connell.

Second row: Mr. Millett, D. Simpson, L. Vogler, T. Gilmartin, D. Brown, A. Mundo

Built around a nucleus of five seniors, Coach Millett's hockey team was picked in pre-season polls to win the G. B. I. League crown for the second time in as many years. The boys lived up to early season predictions and by putting on a spurt in the last half of the regular season were able to tie Arlington for the League Championship. The deciding game was the last one of the season when the S. H. S. puck chasers met Arlington and won the championship game by a last ditch goal in the final twenty seconds of the third period.

Five boys chosen to represent Stoneham in the post-season All-Star contests were Bud Chambers, Dick Heerter, Bob Barney, Bob Knight, and Charlie Sprott. Warren MacCarthy was the Stoneham representative on the second team. Stoneham was indeed proud of Coach Millett, who was chosen All-Star coach, and of his G. B. I. Champions.

Basketball

First row: J. Dixon, J. Sullivan, R. Tiberio, R. Steele, R. Shanks

Second row: Mgr. R. Sprague, R. Sawin, P. Griffin, D. Woodbury, E. Uhrig, E. Thompson, R. Doran, G. Savard, L. Rodrick

With an entirely new club playing this year, not much was expected from the basketball team in the way of a record. The boys soon proved, however, that they could win their share of games. After a poor start, they caught fire and won five straight games before dropping a game. They turned out to be the surprise team of the league and ended in the first division. The seniors who worked with the team were Bob Sprague, manager, Bobby Doran, Bill Canavan, Dick Sawin, George Savard, Dick Tiberio, Jimmy Sullivan, Eddie Uhrig, and Bob Shanks.

Baseball

First Row: G. Savard, C. Patterson, Thompson, R. Sawin, W. Fitzgerald, R. Shanks.

Second Row: Coach DeTeso, Manager P. Bartlett, E. Uhrig, D. Flynn, W. Canavan, H. Porter, R. Tiberio, R. Steele, J. Fleisher, Manager P. Griffin.

Returning for the 1953 varsity team were senior Co-captains Bill Canavan and Harold Porter; Don Flynn, Dick Tiberio, Tom Gilmartin; Managers Paul Griffin and Paul Bartlett.

With the air-tight infield of Canavan, Porter, and Mathewson; our great pitchers; and the long ball hitters, Stoneham was in the thick of the Middlesex battle. For enthusiasm and tremendous ball playing, the Stoneham High team was tops in our estimation.

Coaches . . . . Mrs. Vera Lawson, Miss Madeleine Topham

Co-captains: . . . . . Eleanor Ewing, Marjorie Boyle

Plenty of spark and spirit highlighted each game of the 1953 field hockey season as the battling team fought on to victory. Through many long practices, the girls developed team work and one of the most enthusiastic and aggressive field hockey teams Stoneham has produced in quite some time.

First row: B. Goudey, N. Larange, P. Simmons, E. Ewing, M. Boyle, S. Morrison, L. McCarthy, J. Hanson

Second row: Miss Topham, N. Devlin, M. Smith, J. Shaw, D. Barney, D. Eramo, C. Peacock, M. Panetta, M. Burke, C. Carbone, Mrs. Lawson

Girls' Basketball

Again this year, attracted by the ıticipation of the annual rivalry a-ɔng the three classes, many of our nior girls enthusiastically competed their favorite sport, basketball. The rill of entering the gym to a stirring arch on the night of the annual tour-ament, the bright blue and white out-s of the seniors, and the anixous wait-g to see if the crucial angle shot ould swish through the net will be membered by all of us.

The A. A. is the organization which stimulates school spirit and assures a big turnout at athletic events. This year the association has been active in selling pennants to promote interest in the Stoneham teams. Membership, as usual, is one hundred percent, to prove beyond doubt that student spectators support the athletes and the teams as well as the Stoneham High School criterion of fair play and good sportsmanship.

Blue and White is the student-managed club which joins the Stoneham Teachers' Club in making the annual Winter Carnival Ball the outstanding success it always is! This organization uses its funds for the purpose of giving scholarships to deserving students in furthering their education. As in every other club at Stoneham High School, membership is open to every student, and therefore emphasizes participation as a basic principle of democracy.

OUR PRAYER

Lord, please help us here today;
Give to us Your heavenly grace.
Let us right all wrongs we pray
In the thoughtless world we face.

Banish fears that chill the night,
And our hopes and dreams renew;
Lead us with Your holy light,
To the goals that will please You.

Give us strength to face the storms,
Send us hope to last life through,
Show us that we're needed here,
Draw us ever nearer You.

Treat us as Your wandering lambs,
Lead us through the dark of night,
Till, at last, we find the path
To eternal love and light.

Constance Fox

AMERICA, OUR COUNTRY

America is our country, a land that's proud and free,
Where Stars and Stripes wave grandly from mountains to the sea.

She has a great tradition for all who freedom seek;
She is proud of the brave and stalwart but kind to the poor and weak.

'Gainst race or creed or color, no stigma shall there be,
Because in our great country all men are really free.

God grant we'll always cherish the land of the free and brave,
By being men and women who will our heritage save.
